

RAMYA. R.

Pursing Post-Graduate in Psychology, Ramya completed her graduation in Business Management from Bharathiyar University, took up the field of Soft-Skills Training and specialized in the field of Self-Development Training and Counseling. Today, she has established herself as a Corporate Trainer and is into full-time Soft-Skills Development - A Training & Learning Solutions provider for various Corporate, Colleges and Private Institutions for more than 3 years.

Ramya's expertise is in the area of People Management Skills and Customer Care. Her Presentation Skills and Behavioral Training Programs are tailor-made to the customer's needs to bring out the desired outcome from the participants. Her strengths are her creative communication, and she is a presenter with an ability to establish rapport with groups at all organization levels to deliver enthusiastic presentations with clarity and humor to diverse audience.

Her programs on Teambuilding, Communications Skills, Presentation Skills, Out-Bound -Experiential Training Programs, Fire -Walk and Personal Effectiveness have brought in repeat requests from organizations that she has worked with.

She has also been invited as Guest Faculty by various Management Institutions and has also extended her expertise in Consulting to them. She believes that consulting can transform the conventional learning model to real time competency and an experiential based learning model can achieve corporate objectives with sound development plans.

She has designed and conducted various successful Customized in-house Workshops and Training Programs for Companies such as CSS Groups, Cognizant, Ford, Hyundai, Jagannath Textiles, Redington, LG, Classic Polo, Visteon, Royal Sundaram Finance, Wipro, L&T and many more